

Homecoming 2019

Theme: “We are the Trojans”

Dress Up Days:

Friday (9/20) – “Pre-Game” – Dress up in your favorite sports team apparel (since Monday is school picture day we are starting a day early)

Monday- School Picture Day – Look good for your School photo (no dress up day)

Tuesday – Twin/Duo Day – Twin with friends or dress up as an iconic duo

Wednesday – Meme Day – Dress up as your favorite Meme or Vine reference

Thursday – Tacky Tourist Day – Think: Hawaiian shirts, khaki shorts, socks and sandals

Friday – Trojan Pride – Show your purple and gold school spirit

Activities and Competitions: All Week will be a competition between the high school classes. A large score sheet will hang in the student lounge.

- Dress up days will be counted for the high school classes by the class advisors and reported to Mr. Head at the beginning of each day.
- JMG Classes will help out with campus clean up during the week and will repaint the Trojan heads around campus.
- Elementary classes will continue with the best Spirit Posters contest. The posters will need to be hung in the Varsity gym by Thursday’s volleyball match. There will be two winning classes this year: One winner from the K-2nd grade classrooms and one from the 3rd-5th grade classes.
- There will also be a door decorating event for the Elementary classes hosted by Mr. Koenig
- The Middle School JMG Class is hosting a TROJANS GIVING BACK food drive all week. Students should bring in their food to donate to the Whitehall Food Pantry and turn them in to their teachers in the elementary and to the advisors in the middle school and high school. The JMG class will come around first period to the advisors’ classrooms to collect food each day. Elementary teachers, we will come collect on Friday unless you need us to come sooner. The class that brings in the most for each school will win a root beer float party hosted by the JMG class.
- In the high school there will also be a hallway decorating contest all week. It will be judged on Friday.
